

I'm concerned about the FCC rule change on June 2. I don't want one corporation owning multiple media outlets in the same market. I am particularly concerned about Clear Channel controlling so much media and News Corporation buying DirectTV. The air waves are supposed to serve the public interest. Recent experience shows that many are controlled by corporations that support the administration (i.e., the war). I am looking for a level playing field so that all voices can be heard.